Do You See This Woman?

Luke 7:36-50

Today, we are unpacking a passage about hosting the Lord. Simon, a Pharisee who knew the customs and expectations around hosting an honored guest, failed to fulfill his duties. But an unwelcomed woman steps in and lavishly provides, hosting Jesus with the expression of her heart's gratitude.

The Lavish Hosting by the Woman

1. Washing Jesus' feet with tears of repentance.
2. Welcome and greeting of affection expressed through kissing.
3. Anointing of oil with costly perfume to bless the Lord.

The result was the blessing of Jesus to go in peace.

How is the Lord inviting me, practically, to host His presence?

How might I dwell in the peace that He provides?

April 28 2024

Welcome to McKernan Baptist Church! We are so glad you have joined us either in person or online this Sunday. It is a blessing to worship our Lord together. You are welcome here! Today, we continue a series of sermons exploring some of the questions of Jesus that we find in the Gospels.

Luke 7

⁴⁴Then he turned toward the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵You did not give me a kiss, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet. ⁴⁶You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet. ⁴⁷Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven—as her great love has shown. But whoever has been forgiven little loves little."

When you know how much God is in love with you, then you can only live your life radiating that love. - Mother Teresa

Christ has paid the full price for our redemption, but our walk with God on a daily basis will cost us much. Are we willing, cheerfully, to pay the cost? - AW Tozer

Get into the habit of dealing with God about everything. Unless in the first waking moment of the day you learn to fling the door wide back and let God in, you will work on a wrong level all day; but swing the door wide open and pray to your Father in secret, and every public thing will be stamped with the presence of God. - Oswald Chambers
